

Prof. Seiichi Uchida received B.E. and M.E., and Dr. Eng. degrees from Kyushu University, Japan, in 1990, 1992, and 1999, respectively. From 1992 to 1996, he joined SECOM Co., Ltd., Japan. Since 2007, he has been a professor at the Department of Advanced Information Technologies. Currently, he is a Senior Vice President, a Distinguished Professor, and the director of the Education and Research Center for Mathematical and Data Science at Kyushu University. His research interests include image-informatics, pattern recognition, machine learning applications, and interdisciplinary collaborations on data science topics.

He received various international awards, including the IAPR/ICDAR Best Paper Award in 2007, and domestic awards, including the Research Award from the Ministry of Education, Culture, Sports, Science and Technology in 2019.

For IEICE, Prof. Uchida served as the Chairperson of the Technical Committee on Pattern Recognition and Media Understanding from 2021 to 2022, the Organizing Committee on the 25th Meeting on Image Recognition and Understanding in 2022, and Kyushu Section in 2022.