

Preannouncement and First Call for Papers

THE FOURTH ASIA-PACIFIC CONFERENCE ON ENVIRONMENTAL ELECTROMAGNETICS CEEM'2006

Dalian, China Aug.1-4,2006

Co-Sponsors

China Institute of Communications (CIC)
Beijing University of Posts and Telecommunications (BUPT)
The Institute of Electrical Engineers of Japan (IEEJ)
The Institute of Electronics, Information, Communication Engineers of Japan(IEICEJ)
IEEE Communications Society (Technical)

Co-Chairmen

Prof.Gao Yougang      Beijing University of Posts and Telecommunications, China
Prof.Shuichi Nitta      Salesian Polytechnic, Japan

Topics

This conference will treat a wide range of Environmental Electromagnetics. Authors are invited to submit original & unpublished papers in the areas listed below:

Antenna	Non-Ionizing Radiation & EM Bioeffect
Probe & EM Sensor	ESD&EMP
CAD in Antenna	Seismo-Electromagnetic Phenomena
Electromagnetic Field Theory	Filtering
Transmission Lines & Cables	Shielding & Grounding
EM Wave Propagation	Immunity & Susceptibility
Space Electromagnetics	EMI Prediction Analysis, Reduction Technique
Scattering	EMC in communication
EMI Sources	EMC in Power Engineering
EM Environment	Numerical Modeling of Circuits & PCBs
Coupling & Cross-Talk	Test Chambers
Lightning & Transients	Spectrum Management
EM Calculation	Measurement
EMC Modeling Techniques

Submission Guideline

Authors are invited to submit

1. Three copies of a 30-50 words abstract, each on a single separate sheet. On these sheets the title and author(s) should be indicated.
2. Three copies of a 800-1000 words summary(or with supporting illustrations not more than 4 pages). The title and author's name(s) should be on the front page of each copy.
