The Institute of Electronics, Information and Communication Engineers (IEICE) announces a forthcoming special section on “Data Engineering and Information Management”, which is published in Transactions on Information and Systems*. We invite submissions of original and unpublished papers in the field of wide range of the title.

1. Scope

Original papers on both theoretical and practical data engineering and information management, and its related research are welcome to this special section. The topics of interest include, but are not limited to the following:

- Data Engineering: file structure, storage, query processing, query languages, transaction processing, data model, cloud computing, distributed and parallel databases, P2P system, multimedia databases, spatial and temporal databases, mobile databases, sensor databases, data warehouse, OLAP, data mining, XML and semi-structured databases, stream processing, smart computing for big data, infrastructure and platform for smart computing, smart devices for big data, mobile communications and networks

- Information Management: crowd sourcing, meta-data, semantic Web, information and data broadcasting, e-commerce, e-learning, security and privacy, contents technologies, Web services, information retrieval and extraction, summarization, digital libraries, data archive, visualization, user interfaces, recommendation, personalization, graph management, social networks, data integration, probabilistic database, GIS, scientific databases, big data applications, big data analytics and social media

Papers whose topic are far from data engineering and information management may be rejected without review. This special section does not accept SURVEY papers.

2. Submission Guidelines:

- A manuscript should be prepared according to the guideline (http://www.ieice.org/eng/shiori/mokuji_iss.html). We encourage the authors to use the IEICE Style File (http://www.ieice.org/ftp/index-e.html). The standard number of pages is 8 for a PAPER and 2 for a LETTER with the format determined by the IEICE Style File. The maximum number of pages for the initial submission of a LETTER is 4.

- Submit the manuscript and transfer the copyright to the IEICE through the IEICE Web site (https://review.ieice.org/regist/regist_baseinfo_e.aspx). Choose “[Special-DA] Data Engineering and Information Management” in the menu of “Journal/Section” in the submission page.
