4.3 Improvement of the Section (Membership Evolution, Advertisement of Activities, Publication, etc.)

Build and maintain the IEICE Shanghai Section Website from January 2020 to now.

4.4 More and more graduate students are selecting IEICE to publicize their research works, for example,

Sun K, Zhu J. Searching and learning discriminative regions for fine-grained image retrieval and classification[J]. IEICE TRANSACTIONS on Information and Systems, 2022, 105(1): 141-149.

4. Review and Future Plan

To evolve the 2022 activities as above, the activity Plan in 2023 will be set up as follows:

- Inviting IEICE staff to introduce the organization and its membership policy.
- Associating with more IEICE sections and organizing an international conference.

6. Constructive Opinion/Request/Proposal

- Set up a fund for each section for annual activities: organization, communications, and exchange.
- Attracting more first-level experts to submit their research results to IEICE to improve the quality and reputation of IEICE
- IET has full-time staff in the China branch in order to develop cooperation and activities with industries and universities. Maybe IEICE can also learn some things from it.
